

IFG001 JAMES BROWN'S HIDE SHOW! "Votre travail, c'est notre santé" CD-R

This is crazy French grindcore that has no time for slow parts, unless of course it includes some odd sample like a the Friends theme song or part of a BEE GEES tune. The songs are a pure blastbeat attack with heavy power chords and high pitched screaming. There is something wonderful about listening to fifteen songs in less than fifteen minutes.

Maximum Rock'n'roll #303 - aug 2008

*This is mad grindcore from France: James Brown Hide Show deliver the funny side of noise with distorted cacophonous vocals, blast beats, grinding guitars and a funny feeling since they add some sound samples and funny noises (donkeys, sheeps etc) and cover twice the classic disco hit Staying Alive of Bee Gees plus a lightspeed version of Police bastard . I dont know anything about them,their site is in french so i can't understand a single word but there are tons of pictures and a gig list,they seem to be around since 2001. In C'est notre sante there are 14 tracks and last 13 minutes, get the cd from their site or from here.
