

IFG006 EAT SHIT EXPERIENCE "Vive l'alcool" CD

Silly, spastic hardcore and grindcore from France. EAT SHIT EXPERIENCE uses keyboards and drums that sound like a drum machine. The CD travels through a few different sounds, including bad metal hardcore and spazzy grindcore. The first song, "Drunk Mental Experience" is terrible metal hardcore. "We are the Perfect Boyz" is much more interesting spazzy grindcore, and the singer sounds like he's making fun of METALLICA. The keyboard and drum sound annoyed me through most of the CD. My favorite part of this release was the shade of yellow they used in the artwork.
