

IFG028 WOJTYLA // SUFFERING MIND « Crucified by reality » split 7"

Most people say that the 7" record is a perfect format for hardcore punk but I think it suits grindcore even better. These two bands from Poland exemplify what's great about grindcore. SUFFERING MIND's duel male/female vocals are making me hallucinate as the band rips through a batch of unbridled political hatred. Fucking intense!! WOJTYLA have a heavier, crustier, dirtier take on grind. Super fucking heavy blast beat driven shit, devolving into slower paced riffs that crush skulls. Total impact grind!!
