

IFG043 VISIONS OF WAR Shit parade 12"

I wish that record was really bad so I could make a shit parade joke, but once again VISIONS OF WAR have delivered an epic crust record. This outfit from Belgium has been crushing it for fifteen years now and everything I've heard by them has been pretty fucking good. This has throat killing dual vocals over fast, heavy, and somewhat metallic D-beat that batters relentlessly at your eardrums. The sort of music you listen to while studding up your vest. Awesome artwork on the cover and I dig the samples too.
